From Our Principal...

As Catholics, Lent is our great retreat. It is the time during which we reflect on our baptismal commitment and make changes where we need them. Lent began on Ash Wednesday and ends with the Easter Triduum on Holy Thursday, April 12th. When we were growing up, we were taught to give up something as a way of doing penance, i.e., no candy between meals, no carbonated drinks, no television after 7:00 p.m., etc. I would encourage you, in this season of Lent, to spend time as a family to pray, play, and work together. Spending time with your children will make memories that will carry them into adulthood and parenthood. These memories will take precedence over time spent at parades or parties.

The three traditional cornerstones of Lenten observance are prayer, fasting and almsgiving. More time given to prayer during Lent should draw us closer to the Lord. We need to pray for our families who have lost loved ones and for those who are in need of our intercession. Fasting should remind us of those who are forced to fast by their poverty, those who suffer from the injustices of our economic and political structure, those who are in need for any reason. Almsgiving is a sign of our care for those in need and an expression of our gratitude for all that God has given to us. We need to give alms and to do so without physical reward. As a Catholic school, we will try to expose our students to these three pillars of Lenten observance. We can, however, only be a supplement to the practices of the home.

We have so many things to celebrate as a school community. The Rebel Revue dance team competed in the National Dance Championships in Orlando, Florida, and placed 4th in the nation in Hip-Hop and reached the semi-finals in Jazz. Our girls' basketball team is the undefeated district champions, and the boys' will finish as runners-up. The boys' soccer team was district co-champions and the girls' team finished third. The recent production of The Secret Garden was the most difficult undertaking for our drama department, and the production was fantastic. The wrestling team finished third in state; we had two state champions and nine athletes score in the finals. The speech and debate team has won six tournaments in their ten outings this year. On March 21 at 12:15 p.m., we will celebrate the academic accomplishments of our students with the annual Academic Pep Rally. Last year KISS came into the Rebel Dome on a Harley. I wonder who will show up this year?

We have so much for which to be grateful. We have been blessed with many talents and abilities. The lessons in our Christian life that we pass on as a school run much deeper than, "What did you give up for Lent?" The real question should be "What did you do for Lent?" Did you fast, pray, or give alms? How will we answer those questions?

ACADEMICS

Marty Heintz - Assistant Principal

I'm writing this as I am giving the February ACT Test to an extremely nervous group of 25 students. Actually, for many of them, the word nervous doesn't come close to describing the anxiety I can see in their faces, their body language, the nervous gestures. The vast majority of them really do take the test seriously on test day, knowing how much rests with a good or bad score.

Now, I don't want you to misunderstand me. I'm a parent too and I set high standards for my kids when they were growing up and expected them to meet those standards. I also know that most of our students have the potential to do well on the ACT – if they do what they are supposed to do in our classrooms. However, I can't help wondering sometimes if we, as a culture, don't place too much emphasis on test scores. The world will not end if a student doesn't get a 21 or a 27 or a 30 on the ACT. You can still go to college and graduate and be a success in life even without a high ACT, even without TOPS. Ask high school teachers – they can tell you who will succeed and their views will be based on actual academic performance and EFFORT. The student who works hard to maintain that B average but only scores a 20 on the ACT has every bit as good a chance of success in college as does that student who scores a 27 on the ACT but maintains a D average because he/she doesn't put forth any effort or could care less about academics. We've all known intellectually gifted people who simply never lived up to the potential that IQ tests showed were there.

So, while scoring well on the ACT is certainly a goal for our students, try to remember to look at your child's other accomplishments as well. Encourage them to work to potential and be satisfied knowing they are trying their hardest.

Now, on the other hand...You recently received third quarter progress reports and the third quarter report cards will soon be issued. It is hard for many students to keep focused as the weather warms up, the spring sports seasons kick in, and as the school year begins to wind down. You can help your child remain focused and on task for the remainder of the school year. Too often we see a senior lose their TOPS award or not graduate because "senior fever" takes over and the grades drop or do not improve. Too often we see underclassmen have to attend summer school because they didn't keep the effort up until the last day.

Even though it is now spring, you should still see homework every night, and see your child studying for tests, writing major papers, and completing projects. If you don't, something is wrong.

For those of you whose child is struggling, stay in contact with the teacher and check K12 Planet. While we all like to trust our own kids, sometimes they don't measure success in the same terms as us, so their "I'm doing better" or "I have it under control" response to your questions needs to be checked out.

If you have any questions about grades, please feel free to call me (ext. 103) or one of the guidance counselors, and definitely call the teacher.

Campus Ministry

Catholic Schools Week

On Monday, January 29th, of Catholic School's Week, Teurlings Catholic HS was blessed and honored to have the Maria Rosa Mystica Statue in our chapel. A quiet place of prayer and reverence was set up for students to come before Mary in prayer, offering petitions at the foot of Our Blessed Mother. Mary began appearing in Montichiari-Fontanelle (Italy) in 1947, to nurse Pierina Gilli. This Rosa Mystica statue has been to the place where Mary appeared and has been traveling throughout the Diocese of Lafayette since the 1990's. Maria Rosa Mystica will once again return to Italy at the place where Mary appeared, bringing with her the intentions of our teachers and students. As a Catholic school, we are grateful to have had the opportunity to pray on campus and proclaim our undying love for Our Mother.

Black History Month

During Catholic Schools Week, we held a mass to honor the many gifts that the African American culture brings to the Catholic Church. Fr. Trahan celebrated the mass and the Immaculate Heart choir beautifully led us in song. Following mass, freshman Adrienne Landry, recited the poem, "Still I Rise," by Maya Angelou. The celebration was a wonderful way to begin Black History Month.

Retreats, Retreats, and more Retreats

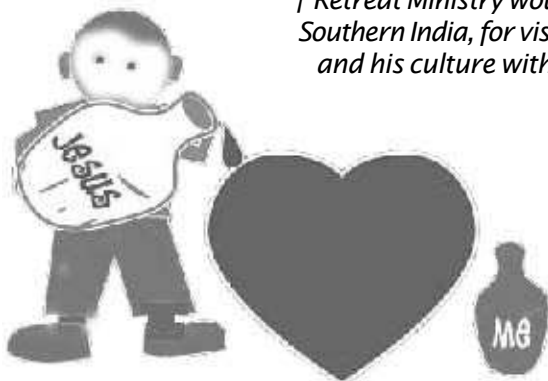

This month kicked off the start of many spring retreats to come. On Wednesday, February 7th, the Retreat Ministry team traveled to Breaux Bridge to lead a retreat for the St. Bernard 7th graders. The theme was "Let's all jump on the Friend-Ship," focusing on building healthy relationships with classmates and with Jesus Christ. The day was filled with fun games and quiet times of reflection. Thanks to Elyse Leblanc and Brittany Robicheaux for their leadership!

De la Salle was the beautiful setting for the St. Genevieve 7th grade retreat on Friday, February 16th. The theme was "Rockin' with God", focusing on bringing fun into your relationship with God. The students enjoyed a day of music, fellowship, and fun! Special thanks to Chase Guidry and Kylie Latiolais for planning the day's events!

♥ Best Valentine Ever ♥

Rebel Revival was held on February 12th in the chapel...two days before Valentine's Day. The theme was "Best Valentine Ever," reminding us that the love of Jesus Christ is everlasting. Join us at our next Rebel Revival on Wednesday, March 14th in the chapel at 7:00pm. Our gratitude to Spencer Ortego and Lindsay Primeaux for leading the night!

† Retreat Ministry would like to thank Fr. Muthu "Stan," from Southern India, for visiting our class and sharing his ministry and his culture with us. May your travels back home be safe!
